

Level 1 Engineering

During the year you will undertake two practical projects supported by industry-based engineering unit standards. You will learn basic skills using lathes and milling machines as well as more advanced metal working techniques.

This course offers 20 Unit Standards and prepares you for the Level 2 Engineering course.