Senior Technology

The Senior Technology courses require students to produce one piece of coursework, which must consist of a product that the student has manufactured in the workshop plus a folder including research and analysis about the problem being solved. The Year 12 students this year have been working on a designing and making musical instruments.

Bailey Hudson and Simon Parker designed and made two individual Ashkio drums for Maunu School.

Other instruments included Electric Guitars and Xylophones